1. Get ready for online classes

Library training: How to use Zoom for online classes?

To get prepared for the online classes, you can learn more about Zoom by joining the upcoming library session titled "How to use Zoom for online classes?". The training session will cover Zoom etiquette and some useful functions, including how to join a meeting, mute and unmute, turn on the video and set the virtual background, etc.

Date: 11 Sep 2020

Time: 4 - 5 pm

Venue: via Zoom

(the meeting link will be sent to you shortly)

Sign-up by clicking here

Note: Please download and install the Zoom desktop client at the Zoom Download Center before joining this session.

If you prefer self-learning, check out the user guide on Zoom for students which contains a step by step instruction to set up Zoom for your online learning.

10 new iPads are ready for loan! Zoom is preinstalled so you can join your class immediately. We also have some hourly-loan notebooks which suit for Zoom meeting and essay writing.

3. Find resources with the new EBSCO portal

Access to EBSCO

- ### 3. Choose what suits you the most

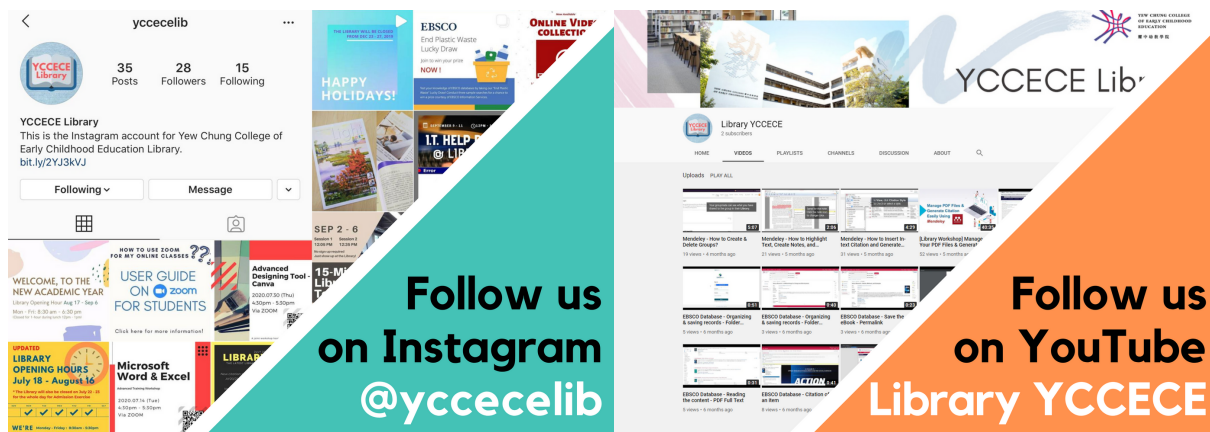

The diagram illustrates four methods to access EBSCO resources, arranged in a vertical stack. Each method is represented by a light blue rounded rectangle containing an icon, a title, and a description.

- EBSCOhost Research Databases: The top rectangle features the EBSCOhost logo (a green circle with a white 'e' and the text 'EBSCOhost') and the text 'For searching e-resources on EBSCOhost Research Databases'.
- EBSCO Discovery Service: The second rectangle features the EBSCO Discovery Service logo (a green circle with a white 'e' and the text 'EBSCO Discovery Service') and the text 'For searching library resources'.
- Publication Finder Interface: The third rectangle features the Publication Finder Interface logo (a green circle with a white 'e' and the text 'Publication Finder Interface') and the text 'For finding known publication'.
- EBSCOhost Mobile: The bottom rectangle features the EBSCOhost Mobile logo (a blue circle with a white 'e' and the text 'EBSCOhost Mobile') and the text 'For access on mobile phone'.

4. Citing resources in APA 7th

In the last issue of the library newsletter, we introduced the new citation style in AY20/21: APA 7th and the library guide on citing sources in APA style. The Library will create short user education video on teaching APA 7th citation style. It will be available on the Library's YouTube channel in September 2020. In October 2020, we will hold a citation management workshop to demonstrate how to use EndNote Online for storing and exporting citations when writing your essay.
